Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this module, a student will be able to:

1. Communicate in a range of spoken communication that exploit the language systems (lexis, grammar) and skills (productive and interactive) covered in the module.
2. Determine the function of a variety of short and extended aural texts within the lexical contexts covered in the module.
3. Examine a variety of text types within the lexical contexts covered in the module for general academic purposes, and display those reading skills practised within the module.
4. Produce stylistically appropriate formal written texts demonstrating a command of the lexical and grammatical elements covered in the module.
5. Demonstrate awareness of cultural diversity based on class discussion and independent reflection.

Learning and Teaching Methods

- Adopting a broadly communicative and integrated approach to language teaching, methods may include inter-active seminars, short talks and presentations and workshops using both traditional and ICT-based materials. Emphasis will be placed on class participation, independent learning and skills development. Teaching approaches that recognise and foster a variety of learning and teaching styles and/or promote learner motivation may be employed.

Assessment Methods
